

CONFERENCE ON THE FOUNDING OF THE ILHAM TOHTI INITIATIVE:

Prof. Ilham Tohti and the Human Rights of Uyghurs

December 12, 2016

11:00 - 15:00 h

Host: Margarete Bause, Group Chairperson of the Alliance '90/The Greens
In the Bayerische Landtag
Max-Planck-Straße 1, 81675 München

Panelists will discuss the current situation of the Uyghurs in the Autonomous Region of Xinjiang (East-Turkestan) and the possibility of a peaceful solution of the ethnic tensions on the basis of Ilham Tohti's ideas.

Invited participants are regional and federal politicians as well as representatives of the European Parliament, various foreign representatives and human rights activists.

Free admission

Professor Ilham Tohti, who for many years has been trying to find a peaceful solution to the ethnic tensions in Xinjiang (China), was sentenced to life imprisonment in 2014 on the pretext of "separatism."