

Hanging by a Thread: CPEC, Progressive Nationalism and the Growth of Religious Extremism in Balochistan

Organised by the Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization (UNPO) and the World Baloch Organisation (WBO)

18 July 2017, 15h30 to 18h00
Conference Room, Amnesty International UK,
25 New Inn Yard, EC2A 3EA, London

Opening remarks

Fernando Burgés, UNPO Programme Manager

Moderator

Peter Tatchell, Peter Tatchell Foundation

China-Pakistan Economic Corridor and Balochistan

Athar Hussain, London School of Economics and Political Science

From Fragmentation to Solidarity: Resisting State Violence in Balochistan & Pakistan

Mahvish Ahmad, University of Cambridge

CPEC: A Baloch Perspective

Naseer Dashti, Balochi Academy

Marxist Merchants, Panjabi Potentates: CPEC & Colonial Balochistan

Burzine Waghmar, School of Oriental and African Studies

Way forward: Can the Baloch Question be resolved with the federal framework of Pakistan?

Rafiullah Kakar, University of Oxford